

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

JOIN US IN CELEBRATING NATIONAL DISABILITY EMPLOYMENT AWARENESS MONTH

“AMERICA’S WORKFORCE: EMPOWERING ALL”

The U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) cordially invites you to attend an event recognizing National Disability Employment Awareness Month (NDEAM) 2018.

October 30, 2018

2:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. ET

U.S. Department of Labor
200 Constitution Ave., NW
Washington, D.C. 20210

PLANNED SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Alexander Acosta

U.S. Secretary of Labor

Jennifer Sheehy

Deputy Assistant Secretary of Labor
for Disability Employment Policy

Craig Leen

Acting Director

Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs

Neil Romano

Chairman

National Council on Disability

In addition, DOL’s Office of Disability Employment Policy will unveil the latest public service announcement, “Working Works,” produced by its Campaign for Disability Employment. This PSA explores the many benefits of work and the important roles different people—including employers, colleagues, health-care providers and family members—play in supporting people who become ill or injured to stay in the workforce.

We hope you can join us in reaffirming our commitment to ensuring all Americans can access good, safe, family-sustaining jobs. Space is limited. Please register at <https://www.surveygizmo.com/s3/4611013/NDEAM-Registration> (and indicate any accommodations you may need to participate). If you are unable to attend in person, you may also watch remotely using the following WebEx details:
